

4-H & FFA RULES

Parents and Leaders: Youth should do their own project whenever safe and practical. The Mesa County Executive Fair Board (MCEFB) recognizes that adult leaders and parents are expected to TEACH the child skills of their project, and in some cases, demonstrations on the project as deemed necessary. Adults must ask themselves, “Am I showing the child, telling the child, or doing the project work for the child?” Remember that each child who does not do his/her own work is the child that is cheated out of the experience.

GENERAL RULES:

These rules apply to Livestock and Indoor Project Areas.

NOTE: All rules in this guide will be available no later than May 1st of the current year and no changes except those dealing with animal or human safety may be made after that point.

RULE 1: AGE ELIGIBILITY AND AGE DIVISIONS

The project leader MUST be enrolled as a leader in the project to sign the entry from.

RULE 3: CLOVERBUDS

In accordance with the Colorado State 4-H policy, 4-H members between the ages of 5 and 7, as of December 31st of the previous 4-H year, are known as primary 4-H members and may not exhibit or sell 4-H livestock projects. This includes, but is not limited to cattle, goats, sheep, horses, llamas, poultry, rabbits, and/or swine. All Clover bud members are encouraged to participate in a display.

RULE 4: PRE-ENTRY

Pre-entry of all projects must be into the CSU Extension office by June 14th by 5:00 pm. Entries not received by that date will be ineligible for the fair.

RULE 5: JUDGING

Only classes listed in the Exhibitor's Guide will be judged unless the judge and the superintendent divide or combine classes to facilitate judging. All exhibits will be placed according to their own merits, which is determined at the discretion of the official judge. Livestock will be judged on the American System. In all other categories, judging will be based on Danish and American Systems.

RULE 6: PREMIUM-AWARDS

Entries awarded Champion and Reserve Champion will receive ribbons, while entries awarded Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion will receive Rosettes.

RULE 7: CHECK-OUT & CLEAN UP

Check-out for all non-sale livestock will be completed by 8:00 p.m. Friday, July 19th. Exhibit Hall check out is 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., Sunday July 21st. Exhibitors with indoor projects must check their project out of the exhibit hall with the C Building or project superintendents. Any exhibitor removing exhibits prior to check-out will forfeit all premiums and awards. Horse exhibitor's stalls must be cleaned by 12:00 p.m. on Sunday July 14th. Clean up and take down of pens and exhibit areas will be at 9:00 am., Sunday, July 21st. ALL EXHIBITORS ARE REQUESTED TO BE PRESENT. All stalls must be cleaned by 12:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 21st.

RULE 8: DECISIONS

The Mesa County Fair Show Management and Mesa County Executive Fair Board (MCEFB) reserve the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle questions and differences.

RULE 9: GREIVANCES AND PROTEST

LIVESTOCK

Show Management is responsible for enforcing the rules and is not required to consult with any other person before rendering a decision on an issue.

- A. All protests must first be filed in writing (on approved "Grievance Form") with the project superintendent or Show Manager within 8 hours of the alleged violation.
- B. If the situation is not satisfactorily dealt with, a written appeal may be submitted to the Show Manager who will present the appeal to the Rules Committee.
- C. The Rules Committee will issue a written statement no later than 8 hours prior to the sale addressing the issue. It will be presented to the involved parties by one member who has been chosen as a spokesperson of the Rules Committee.
- D. If there is still no satisfaction, the situation can then be appealed by filing a grievance. An individual must file to the President of the Mesa County Executive Fair Board (MCEFB) within 8 hours of the Rules Committee's decision, a written and signed protest stating their grievance.
 1. The grievance must state plainly the cause of the complaint or protest.
 2. The grievance must be accompanied by a $100 deposit, cash or certified check, which will be forfeited if the grievance is not sustained. The full deposit will be refunded if the grievance is sustained.
 3. Upon receipt of a properly presented grievance, the President will appoint a committee of three (3) disinterested persons to review the grievance and render a decision, within 8 hours, which will be final. The alleged disqualified animal may remain on the fairgrounds during the process time.

If decided there has been a violation, ALL awards earned in the project area in question will be forfeited and the animal/project will be removed from the fairgrounds immediately. The project member will be restricted from participating in that project and other related events during the current Mesa County Fair. Neither a member of the Rules Committee, Mesa County Executive Fair Board, leader/member of the Mesa County 4-H/FFA programs, or the CSU Extension Agency will be held liable for any decision or penalty invoked as a result of the grievance. All decisions of the Grievance Committee are final and not appealable.

INDOOR

Grievances and protest concerning indoor 4-H projects should be referred to the Overall Indoor Superintendents who will follow the procedures as outlined above.

A. CONDUCT

Each division official will expect courteous and orderly conduct by the exhibitors and their attendants. The Mesa County Executive Fair Board (MCEFB) shall reserve the right to vacate, mark ineligible for competition and order the removal of any individual or party which violates these rules of conduct.

B. DRESS CODE

Mesa County Executive Fair Board endorses the Colorado 4-H dress code and reserves the right to vacate, mark ineligible for competition and order the removal of any individual or party which violates these rules of dress code.

C. SPECIAL NOTE

Absolutely NO personal ATV's allowed on fairgrounds except by permit.

INDOOR EXHIBIT RULES

(Also see special Clothing Construction and Creative Clothing rules on Page 43)

RULE 1: INTERVIEW JUDGING

All 4-H General and Home Economic projects will be interview judged. Interviews are not mandatory, but are highly encouraged. If a member is unable to attend the interview judging day, they must notify the Extension Office when they pre-enter their projects on June 14th, 2019.

RULE 2: CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC

Judging of the divisions will be closed to the public.

RULE 3: MULTIPLE PROJECTS

Members who are enrolled in different years of work in the same project are permitted to exhibit in only the most advanced year's work. The exceptions to the rule are Foods (Core Specialty), Garden, Wildlife, Decorate

Your Duds, and Leathercraft. If a unit is being repeated, skill progress must be demonstrated in the project story. Two exhibits are allowed in the following areas: Electric, Electronics, Model Rocketry, and Woodworking.

RULE 4: STATE FAIR

The first place exhibit in each class is eligible to exhibit at the State Fair, unless otherwise stated. All State Fair 4-H Indoor Exhibits must be entered in the 4-H office either during the County Fair or immediately following the County Fair. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to meet any deadlines. Assistance may be needed from the exhibitor to transport large exhibits to the State Fair.

RULE 5: MERIT

When there is no competition, the exhibit shall be judged on its own merit at the discretion of the official judge. The exhibits must merit the award. Projects must fit into a project area and be judged accordingly; if not, the project will be judged where superintendent deems appropriate.

RULE 6: OTHER

Perishable exhibits (in bad shape) should be replaced by the exhibitor during the fair. If they are not replaced, they will be discarded and the ribbon will be left on display. All exhibits will be judged according to rules and guidelines listed in the 2018 Colorado State 4-H Syllabus. All judges' decisions are final.
